

JOB DESCRIPTIONGENERIC INFORMATION ON THE FUNCTION

Job Title: Process Owner

Division: Textile Effects

Location: Jakarta - Indonesia

Reports to: Technical Manager

Department: Technical

Date:

KEY ACCOUNTABILITIES

- Champion EHS Zero Harm and Compliance programs. Ensure EHS global and local standards are maintained. Engage in promotion and achievement of EHS standards and practices, safety culture and mindset
- Support production process and manufacturing control systems.
- Develop and apply new processes or technologies to control production and process functions.
- Product & process-related troubleshooting with appropriate issue resolution
- Process improvements, optimization, and implementation projects.
- Lead process of New product introductions and product transfers (including safety assessment related and training needed)
- Analysis of deviations and definition/execution of the resulting actions.
- Process Hazard Analysis (PHA) and risk analysis where appropriate
- Continuous updating of functional specifications (SOP), system data (PLM et.al.) and related documentation.
- Ensure up to date process and product know-how.

KEY REQUIREMENTSEducation:

Bachelor/ Master degree in chemistry or chemical engineering

Experience:

- Min 3 years of operational experience in product/process development or production in specialty chemical industry preferably within textile dyes and chemicals industry
- Hands-on experience in organic synthesis process

Know-how/skills:

- Hands-on experience with process and product development lifecycle, development of prototype processes and products
- Workflow Assessment Knowledge:
 - Plant layout planning and analysis (design optimization, walk path, workflow)
 - Process simulation tools e.g., manufacturing lines
 - Manufacturing/processing concept planning
 - Lean Manufacturing Concepts
- Data analysis (Microsoft excel, Minitab)

KEY COMPETENCIES

- Analytical and critical thinking
- Data oriented decision making
- Target/result oriented
- Willingness to learn new things
- Communication skills